MERCER, AGNEW & CO., Colonial Square, London. WOMAN'S HEALTH.

It is a immentable fact, that from causes not generally understood, female suffering appears to be on the increase. The sweet young girl just entering womanhood soon becomes paic, feeble, emaciated, lifelesess, with headache, pains and aches, loss of appetite, paipitation of the heart, cold feet and hands, and appear to lose that youthful vim and spaightliness so much admired. The middle ged, married lady is no less exempt from some troublesome anneyances. She is continually grunting and fretting with pains and aches, her secretions are all impaired, her energies are lost, she forces herself in society, she "sours" on almost everybody, her health slowly declines until she becomes a mere drone in her own household. And she at the "turn of life" is no stranger to suffering peculiar to her sex at that age. Habits, climate and inattention surely bring about that are now burling thousands of female old and young, to untimely graves. Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy, it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keen it on hand as a protection against the early vinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of childhood, CHERRY PROCESSAL is invaluable; for by its timely use.

PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.

Originally the product of long, inborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or told is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relief upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.
